

TRAVEL SAFETY CHECKLIST

Before you travel, ask yourself the following:	Complete
Have you checked the Government's foreign travel advice?	<input type="checkbox"/>
Have you checked the entry requirements of the country you're visiting?	<input type="checkbox"/>
Do you have the correct visas?	<input type="checkbox"/>
Is your passport valid?	<input type="checkbox"/>
Have you made a note of the country's emergency number?	<input type="checkbox"/>
Have you got travel insurance? Does it cover any activities you want to do?	<input type="checkbox"/>
Does someone at home know your rough agenda?	<input type="checkbox"/>
Do you know where the nearest British embassy or consulate is to where you're staying?	<input type="checkbox"/>
Have you got different forms of money? (e.g. cash and credit card)	<input type="checkbox"/>
If you're from the European Economic Area or Switzerland, have you got your European Health Insurance Card (EHIC)?	<input type="checkbox"/>
If required, have you contacted your doctor about managing any pre-existing medical conditions?	<input type="checkbox"/>
Do you have enough medical supplies for the trip and any delays?	<input type="checkbox"/>
Before you travel, ask yourself the following:	<input type="checkbox"/>
Have you shared the 'run, hide, tell' advice with anyone you're travelling with?	<input type="checkbox"/>
What's your airline's policy with natural disasters?	<input type="checkbox"/>
If you're driving, is your licence valid? Are you aware of local driving rules?	<input type="checkbox"/>
Have you found out about local rules, customs and dress?	<input type="checkbox"/>